Dear Mr. Hall,

I appreciate you contacting the Secretary of State's Office of GeauxBiz for assistance as you make plans for your new business. Small businesses like yours are the backbone of the American economy. Furthermore, every new business and every job is important to the prosperity of our State and we wish you every success in your endeavor.

With your request to the Office of GeauxBiz, you have taken the first step towards success and I hope the information included will make your registrations easier. As I understand your needs, I am pleased to make you aware of the available state and local resources that can help in your business planning. The following attachment is a summary of programs and contacts that will prove helpful in obtaining all of the necessary licenses and permits that may pertain to your new business.

If you have any questions or if we can be of any further assistance in regards to the filing of your business, please do not hesitate to contact our office at 225.925.4704.

Again, thank you for contacting the Office of GeauxBiz regarding the needs of your new business and we will do everything possible to assist you as you open the doors of your own small business.

Sincerely
