General Trust Provisions by Article

Article One (Declaration of Trust)

This Trust is revocable and we can alter, amend, revoke or terminate it as specifically provided for in Article Two.

Article Two (Lifetime Trust)

The Property of each spouse retains its character as separate, community, quasi-community or tenants-in-common without regard to equalizing value.

The income and principal beneficiaries of the Lifetime Trust created in the Trust are as follows:

Name or Class	Relationship
David Lamar Deal	Settlor
Judith Martin Deal	Settlor

Article Three (Administrative Trust):

The Trustee is authorized, but not directed, to pay the following:

- A. expenses of our burial or cremation, memorials, and funeral services of such kind as the Trustee in its sole, absolute and unreviewable discretion shall approve. In exercising its discretion, the Trustee may be guided, but not controlled, by any instructions for our final arrangements we may have provided;
- B. expenses with regard to the administration of our estates; and
- C. federal estate tax, applicable state inheritance or estate taxes, or any other taxes occasioned by the death of us in accordance with the provisions of the trust.

Article Four (Residuary Distributions for Beneficiaries):

Subject to any special bequests set forth in the above-named Article, the Trustee shall administer the remaining Trust Property with all the power and authority granted under the Trust Agreement for the benefit of the Residuary Beneficiaries.

Our Residuary Beneficiaries' names and shares are as follows:

Residuary Beneficiary Name	Relationship	Share
CHRISTOPHER DAVID DEAL	our son	50%
MARCIE DEAL RAMSEY	our daughter	50%

The terms for distributions to each beneficiary will be addressed individually. Please refer to the Distributions to Beneficiaries contained in this Article for complete information.

Article Five (Under-Age Beneficiaries):

You have chosen to hold in trust, any bequest for the benefit of any contingent beneficiary or incidental beneficiary, and any bequest to a named beneficiary whose bequest is outright, if said beneficiary has not attained age eighteen (18).
