C. DIGITAL ASSETS

1. To access, use and control my digital devices, including but not limited to, desktops, laptops, tablets, peripherals, storage devices, mobile telephones, smartphones, and any similar digital device which currently exists or may exist as technology develops or such comparable items as technology develops for the purpose of accessing, modifying, deleting, controlling or transferring my digital assets.
2. To access, modify, delete, control and transfer my digital assets, including but not limited to, my emails received, email accounts, digital music, digital photographs, digital videos, software licenses, social network accounts, file sharing accounts, financial accounts, domain registrations, DNS service accounts, web hosting accounts, tax preparation service accounts, online stores, affiliate programs, other online accounts and similar digital items which currently exist or may exist as technology develops or such comparable items as technology develops.

D. LEGAL AND TAX MATTER AUTHORITY

1. To represent Appearer, judicially or otherwise, whether as heir, legatee, creditor, executor, administrator or otherwise, in all successions or estates in which Appearer may be or become interested including any acceptance or renunciation thereof.
2. To apply for the administration of all successions or estates in which Appearer may be or become interested and to demand, obtain and execute all orders, decrees and judgments as said Agent may deem proper therein, and finally to settle, compromise and liquidate Appearer's interest therein and to receive and receipt for all property to which Appearer may be entitled in respect of said successions or estates; to accept a succession unconditionally or with benefit of inventory; to accept a bequest; to reject, renounce or disclaim a bequest or a succession, in whole or in part; to sue for a partition in all matters in which Appearer may be appointed.
3. To accept donations inter vivos of all kinds to Appearer from any person or persons.
4. To give and make inter vivos donations of movables and immovables from Appearer to any person or persons all in the manner required by law, and on such terms and conditions as said Agent may see fit, including, without limitation, outright or to a new or existing trust or other custodial arrangement, or otherwise to or for the benefit of Appearer, Appearer's spouse, Appearer's children and their descendants, and the spouses of all of Appearer's descendants, including, but not limited to Agent, in his or her individual capacity, and such other persons as Agent may determine to be in Appearer's best interest or in the best interest of Appearer's estate, including, but not limited to, gifts that will be eligible for the annual gift tax exclusion in I.R.C. §2503(b) as it now appears or may be hereafter amended, and gifts of tuition costs and medical costs in accordance with I.R.C. §§2503(e) and 2611(b)(1), as they now appear or may be hereafter amended as well as taxable gifts that may use up Appearer's unified credit during lifetime as the same is defined in I.R.C. §2010 as it now appears or may be hereafter amended, and gifts to charities and the making or fulfillment of charitable pledges, as well as gifts to qualify for or preserve Medicaid, Veterans or other governmental benefits, and to prepare, execute and consent to, or on behalf of Appearer, to file any return, report, declaration or other document required by the laws of the United States, or by any state or subdivision thereof which Agent deems to be necessary or desirable with respect to any gift made under the authority of this section; and to impose such conditions on the said donations or Agent may determine, including, without limitation, the power to revoke; and to appear before a notary and execute such authentic acts of donation or trust as are necessary or desirable in the sole unlimited discretion of Agent on behalf of and as the affirmative act of Appearer.
5. To consent to the splitting of gifts with Appearer's spouse so that the annual exclusions, unified credits, and generation skipping transfer tax exemptions and exclusions of both spouses may be used in accordance with I.R.C. §§2513 and 2652(a)(2) and Treas. Reg. §25.2513-2(c).

6. To ask, demand, have, take, sue for, and by all lawful ways and means to recover and receive of, and from, all and every person, firm or corporation, all and every such sum and sums of money, goods, debts, property and effects whatsoever, as now is or are or may hereafter be, in his, her, its or their custody or possession, due or owing, coming or belonging to Appearer, whether by bond, bill, note, book-debt, account, consignment, bequest, or for or by any reason or means whatsoever, and to that end, with whom it may concern, to adjust, compromise and settle all accounts, and, upon recovery and receipt in the premises, to make and give good and sufficient discharges and acquittances; to refer any matter to arbitration; to make a transaction in matters of litigation; and in general where things to be done are not merely acts of administration, or such as facilitate such acts.
7. To appear before all courts of law, admiralty and equity, there to do, prosecute and defend as occasion shall require, or to compromise, compound and agree in the premises, by arbitration or otherwise, as deemed fit in said Agent's discretion; also to apply for and obtain all and any attachments, sequestrations, injunctions and appeals, give the requisite security and sign necessary bonds.
8. To sign, execute and deliver in the name and on behalf of Appearer all bonds, reports, returns, petitions and other instruments of every kind, nature and description that may be due or required by the government of the United States of America and of the State of Louisiana, and of any branch, department, political subdivision, or agency of either the said United States of America or the State of Louisiana, or any political subdivision, bureau, department or agency thereof, including particularly, but not by way of exclusion or limitation, the filing of tax returns for all Federal and State taxes, protests in connection therewith, claims for refund and all such other instruments as Agent may deem proper or which may be required to be filed by or on behalf of Appearer by the Treasury Department of the United States and any bureau and official thereof, in all matters pertaining to income, gift, estate and other taxes and returns and reports in connection therewith, heretofore or hereafter filed by or on behalf of Appearer; to examine and obtain copies of any and all statements and other documents and receive letters and other communications from the Internal Revenue Service and the Treasury Department with reference thereto; to execute waivers and to enter into compromise settlements and agreements; to attend to all custom house business for account of Appearer and generally to do, execute and perform all acts and things necessary or conferred in the premises with full power of substitution and revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that the said Agent and his or her Substitute shall do or cause to be done by virtue hereof, and Agent is hereby granted the same authority and power to act and to represent Appearer before the Department of Revenue and any bureau and official or other agency or political subdivision of the State of Louisiana.
9. To do the acts necessary to maintain the customary standard of living of Appearer, Appearer's spouse, children, and other individuals customarily or legally entitled to be supported by Appearer, including providing living quarters by purchase, lease, or other contract, or paying the operating costs, including interest, amortization payments, repairs, and taxes on premises owned by Appearer and occupied by those individuals.

10. To sign and execute in the name of and on behalf of Appearer, all bonds, checks, payments and other disbursements made by the Treasury Department or any other agency or bureau of the United States, including particularly, but not by way of limitation or exclusion, United States Treasury bonds in any series or denomination, refund checks for income or other taxes and social security checks.
11. To act for Appearer and be Appearer's Substitute in all cases wherein Appearer may be appointed the Agent or attorney of others and, otherwise, to exercise fiduciary powers that the principal has authority to delegate.
12. To employ at the cost of Appearer a corporate fiduciary to handle any and all books and records and ministerial duties relating to the business affairs of Appearer.
13. To insure the life of any other person on whose life Appearer may have an insurable interest, with such insurance to be in such forms and amounts and with such beneficiary and contingent beneficiary designation as Agent may determine, and to surrender any time, and to borrow against the value of any such policies, and to exercise any options that Appearer may have as owner of such policies, including, without limitation, the power to borrow against such policies and to repay policy loans.
14. To demand, sue for, arbitrate, settle, collect, receive, deposit, and reinvest all property, sums of money, debts, dues, rights, accounts, legacies, bequests, interest, dividends, annuities, and benefits that are now or may later become due or payable to Appearer, including any benefits payable by any governmental body or agency (such as Supplemental Social Security, Medicaid, VA Benefits, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicare, and Social Security Disability Insurance), and for the purpose of receiving any benefits, assistance, or entitlements, whether by bond, bill, note, debt, account, assignment, bequest, or for any other reason whatsoever, and to take all lawful means to recover such assets or to qualify Appearer for such programs and to compromise claims for such assets and grant discharges for such assets in Appearer's name.
15. To waive, on Appearer's behalf, any attorney-client or physician-patient privileges or duties of confidentiality in circumstances wherein Agent shall deem such waiver appropriate, except to the extent that if any such waiver could infringe on Appearer's Constitutionally-protected rights or would otherwise violate Appearer's Fourth and Fifth Amendment rights, and such disclosure made in accordance with this provision shall be subject to standard clawback rights as though it had been inadvertently produced to an adversarial party in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Federal Rules of Evidence, unless the State in which any disclosure is made offers greater protections to Appearer in terms of restoring the disclosed material's confidential status.

16. TRUSTS

- (a) To create a revocable or irrevocable trust in the name and on behalf of Appearer as the Settlor for the benefit of Appearer, or any other individual or entity as the income and/or principal beneficiary of such trust, with an individual, including but not limited to Agent, or a bank, trust company, or other financial institution, as the trustee or trustees, for any purpose, including but not limited to estate and retirement planning, minimization of income, estate, inheritance or gift taxes, or to qualify for or preserve Medicaid, Veterans or other governmental benefits.
- (b) To transfer and deliver to the trustee of such trust all or any portion of the property of Appearer, corporeal, incorporeal, movable and immovable, wheresoever situated, or to employ an individual or bank to handle and manage all or any portion of the property, corporeal, incorporeal, movable and immovable of Appearer, as a Substitute for said Agent(s) appointed herein, and to pay reasonable fees to the trustee or Substitute Agent for services as trustee or Substitute Agent out of the funds of Appearer.
- (c) To execute on behalf of Appearer a written notice of resignation as trustee of any trust and to appoint on behalf of Appearer a successor trustee for any trust.
- (d) To revoke or modify any trust on behalf of Appearer.

17. DESIGNATION OF CURATOR. In the event that Appearer becomes incapacitated to the point that he must be interdicted, then, Appearer hereby nominates Agent, LESLEY RENE WILEY as his curator, both as to his person and property, and any Alternate or Substitute Agent named herein below as substitute Curator, both as to his person and property, in the event LESLEY RENE WILEY is unable or unwilling to serve or to continue to serve as Curator, or as Under-Curator in the order of priority listed hereinbelow. Such nomination is without any security or bond, conditioned upon Agent faithfully discharging the duties as Curator. Appearer does further authorize said Curator to execute trust instruments, including special needs or other Medicaid-friendly trusts, on behalf of Appearer as settlor, in accordance with the provisions of Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure Article 4566, and to transfer property on behalf of Appearer to the trust or trusts so created. Appearer expressly authorizes the designated Curator to add assets to any such trusts, to revoke or terminate any such trusts on behalf of Appearer, to withdraw or receive income or principal therefrom, and to request or demand such withdrawals of any trusts.

E. GENERAL, ADMINISTRATIVE AND SPECIFIC AUTHORITY

- 1. To open all letters of correspondence addressed to Appearer, and to answer the same.
- 2. To receive and attend to all shipments or consignments of produce, goods, wares or merchandise, that shall or may be made to Appearer, either for Appearer's account and risk or that of others, and to pursue the instructions of the owners, shippers or others interested therein, relative thereto.

3. To appoint any individual as Substitute Agent under this act of Procuration and Mandate with all the powers and authority granted herein to my Agent.
4. Generally, for the full execution of the purposes aforesaid, the said Agent is hereby authorized and empowered to do and perform, and to make, sign and execute in the name of Appearer, any and all acts and instruments of writing, that shall or may be requisite, necessary or desirable and bind Appearer thereby as firmly as if the said acts were, or had been, Appearer's own proper acts and deeds; and, also, to do and perform all and every other act, matter and thing whatsoever conducive to the interest of Appearer, whether the same be an act of administration, merely, or an act of alienation, as shall or may be requisite, necessary, or desirable, touching or concerning the affairs, business, assets and concerns of Appearer, as fully, completely and effectively, and to all intents and purposes with the same validity, as if all and every such act, matter and thing, were, or had been, herein particularly stated, expressed, and especially provided for, or as Appearer could or might do if personally present; also with full power of substitution and revocation in favor of said Agent.
5. SELF DEALING. Agent shall have the power, without limitation, to conduct transactions and enter into contracts which could be considered self-dealing pursuant to the provisions of Louisiana Civil Cod Article 2998. This includes, but is not limited to transactions authorized by this Durable Procuration and Mandate, such as the creation of trusts, donations (including donations to Agent), gifts, and entering into on behalf of Appearer a contract with Agent or any other person, to be compensated for services rendered to or on behalf of Appearer, including but not limited to, a contract to perform personal services for Appearer such as those requiring payment or other compensation to Agent for all acts Agent may perform by authority of this Durable Procuration and Mandate, and Agent is authorized to grant liens, mortgages and other encumbrances against Appearer's property, movable (personal) and immovable (real), to secure, or in payment for, such self-dealing and all other contracts.

III. GENERAL PROVISIONS

A. INTERPRETATION OF TERMS.

1. If there are more than one Agent, the Co-Agents shall act jointly in all matters unless it is specifically stipulated herein to the contrary.
2. Whenever the singular is used in this Act of Procuration and Mandate, it shall also include the plural, and the term "Appearer" or "Appearers" shall apply to each Appearer and each Appearer individually, if there is more than one.
3. The masculine shall include the feminine and the feminine the masculine, and the neuter shall apply to both.

4. "Corporate institutions" wherever used herein, shall include particularly, but not by way of limitation or exclusion, all business entities of every kind, nature or description, wheresoever situated, and all financial corporations and institutions of every kind, nature and description, wheresoever situated, especially state and national banks and state and federal building and savings and loan associations.

IV. EFFECTIVE DATE /DURABILITY

A. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This Act of Procuration and Mandate in favor of LESLEY RENE WILEY shall become effective immediately upon the date signed by Appearer, and shall remain effective until the earlier of the death of Appearer or until it is revoked. In the absence of actual knowledge of death or revocation on the part of the parties concerned, dealing on the faith of this Act of Procuration and Mandate, it shall not be revoked in any fashion, even by Appearer's death, until notice of such death or revocation is placed of record in the office of the Clerk of Court for Rapides Parish, Louisiana. The Act of Revocation shall be in writing, signed by Appearer, in the form of an authentic act or an act under private signature, duly acknowledged.

B. RATIFICATION AND INDEMNITY.

Appearer does hereby ratify and confirm all and whatsoever said Agent, or said Agent's Substitute, shall lawfully do, or cause to be done by virtue of this act of Procuration and Mandate, and agrees to save, protect, defend, indemnify and hold said Agent, and said Agent's Substitute, harmless for all actions taken on Appearer's behalf, including any acts or omissions which may be negligent, excluding only willful misconduct.

C. ALTERNATE OR SUBSTITUTE AGENT.

In the event that LESLEY RENE WILEY is unable or unwilling to perform or continue to perform as my Agent and lawful attorney-in-fact, then I nominate, ordain, authorize, constitute and appoint, in their place and stead, ADRIANE ALEXANDER, domiciled in the Parish of Rapides, State of Louisiana (SSN: XXX-XX-8518) as my true and lawful Substitute Agent and attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to perform, conduct, manage and transact all and singular, the affairs, business, concerns and matters of Appearer, of whatever nature or kind, without any exception or reservation whatever, including, but not limited to, each of the powers specifically named above which have been granted to my original Agent.
